1 Peter 1:15-16 "But as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, because it is written, 'Be holy, for I am holy.'"

Because of the dreadful conditions that are plaguing the world today, especially with the acceptance that evil is the norm, there has been a noticeable emphasis on the end-times. It seems that some are overly intrigued with what they think is going to happen, rather than, what will happen for sure.

I've got good news; all those who will live in heaven forever will be perfectly holy and even sinless. Imagine that! The sinful nature that tormented the believer his or her entire Christian life will no longer exist. Until then, we must as believers live holy, separate lives from this massive confusion.

The direction of our country and the unbelieving world is toward destruction and death. For those who have been deceived by this deception, let's show Jesus to them while we can.

Let's walk separate lives but concerned for those who have been deceived as we see the end approaching.
