Romans 15:17-9; 13

7 Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. 8 For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth, so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed 9 and, moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy.....13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Have you met a person that just did not appeal to you in any way? This was at times how Jesus felt about His own people. Yet for the promises given to their ancestors and those who did it know the Way, He became a servant to them and died for all to the Glory of God the Father.

As we are filled with the Holy Spirit we see others in a different way. This filling is the joy of the and peace of the Holy Spirit, that springs hope in us for all to be saved. This is the Holy Spirit's power in our lives as He continues to transform us from the inside out. In this we bring glory to God.

In Christ,

Pastor Daniel
